Debits Can Be Dangerous C. W. Powell

Liars can figure, but figures never lie. Accountant Diane Saturn is facing life head-on as a single mother when crime makes an unexpected appearance into her life. The simple process of gathering discarded produce boxes at the local grocer brings the police to her door, upping the pulse of her already stressed system. Peopled with well-intentioned friends, and not-so-well-intentioned acquaintances, Diane's staid accounting world shifts on its axis. Join her as she sees a hint of a new love while poking through dull accounting records.
