Middle School Math with Pizzazz B

Steve and Janis Marcy are famous for their math practice worksheets. Organized by topic/skill, if you have a student who is struggling in an area, this is a great way to get him/her up to speed without boring him/her. These worksheets were the highlight of my class. Whenever I handed them out there was 100% on task behavior. Each worksheet covers a specific skill and is of high interest to students because the answers are used in a riddle.
