All Theo Baker wants is to get on with his new life as a student at Columbia, but his dreams keep getting infiltrated by the one girl who stole his heart—Stella, his sexy neighbor back home. They shared a kiss that turned his world upside down; only she said it didn't mean anything to her. But he knows she lied and all he wants is a chance to prove that they could have something real, but it's hard pining away for a girl who's been avoiding him for the past year and a half. Incoming freshman Stella Freeman is excited about going to college for photography—her true passion. She's never more herself than when she is behind the camera. Regardless of her father's constant backlash, she follows her heart to the city where Theo is currently living. He's the only boy she's ever loved, but she's pushed him away. Still, he's never been far from her thoughts, even if he doesn't know. What will happen when their paths cross? Will they have a second chance to be with their one first true love?
