Scratcher (Niamong Book 1) Ian Burns

Scratcher is a young Australian lad who, in the process of living everyday life, seems to become involved in numerous scrapes and comical situations. Often these result in his feeling corporeally the wrath of the Principal, or his father's hand on certain parts of his anatomy. Some of the hilariously funny incidents include: being saved by firemen from the top of a silo whilst he is in the process of rescuing a friend; having a large eel attach itself to his nose whilst out with his father fishing; adopting a dog, who, when it sights a cat, reacts in the normal manner and creates havoc in a butcher's shop; ferreting; a folk dancing competition; a passionate love for his teacher; and watching a train load of pigs escape.
