Signs That He Won't Marry You ConsultTheSage

There are situations where no matter how long each person waits, how good the relationship is, or how awesome they are together as a couple, one partner simply doesn't want to commit. Rather than spend too much time on a man who is not interested in marrying you (or marriage in general), it is important to decode your man's behavior. If he does not share your plan for the future of your relationship, it is better to find out before it is too late.

Here are a few of the most significant signs that a man is not interested in marrying the woman with whom he is in a relationship. I have seen and heard these red flags time and time again when speaking with clients – I share them with you in spirit of love and healing. I sincerely hope that they will help you make the best possible decision for your future.
