Frogs Without Legs Can't Hear: Nurturing Disciples in Home and Congregation David W. Anderson, Paul Hill

One of the objectives of this book is to replace a historically recent and dominant vision of the church with one that better serves the well-being of the congregation and the home. The expectation is that through this alternative vision for the church, this book hopes that through the grace and work of God - as parents and pastors, congregational leaders, and the mentors of children and youth, more effectively pass on faith, values, and character formation from generation to generation.
