Valerie had been handpicked by the werewolves to be the bride to the pack leader's son. John sends his son to kidnap her, hoping to snub the wolves, and turn her before they can.

John loves nothing more than irritating the wolves every chance he gets. As the local vampire King, he's held his position for centuries; he's got a temper, and can be cruel at times.

When he finds out Valerie's already been turned into a wolf, he doesn't quite know what to do with her. Her innocent nature and desire to explore and live life, and enjoy every moment of it, have him appreciate life in a way he hasn't seen it in a long time. He finds himself falling for her.

When the wolves come knocking at the door, will Valerie choose to stay with him, or will she feel honor bound to return with the wolves?
