1st Offense: The Beginning of the End Brian Harper

Each of us has a riddle to unravel, a puzzle to solve, and a labyrinth to navigate. My tailor made struggle has consisted of the following; self-defeat, failure, procrastination, fear, even self-betrayal, low self-esteem and self-unworthiness, self-doubt, loneliness, etc. This book haes the beginning of the end of these things, and ushers in the beginning of a new belief in myself. The end of self-inflicted wounds, the end of involving myself in toxic situations and relationships, the beginning of positive change, self-actualization, and the beginning of starting over.
