They Call Me Mr. Ringler - An Educator's Journey paints a beautifully touching, inspirational, and informative portrait of some of the students, colleagues, and events that helped shape the nearly twenty-nine year educational career of a loving and devoted English teacher and department chair. Both smiles and tears abound as Ringler takes the reader on a trip that begins during his own high school days, and years later, after a nine year career in the world of private industry, ultimately lands him squarely at the entrance of Hialeah-Miami Lakes Senior High School in Hialeah, Florida, the school where he would remain for his entire teaching career.
