Warning: This story contains content which is intended for readers over the age of 18.

I was furious when I realized my mom couldn't honor my only request. How hard could it be?

When I saw him standing there, I thought I was going to lose it. Why did she have to pick Ethan's dad as her latest victim? There were a million other guys to choose from, but she had to pick him. My new stepbrother was going to be the one guy that got off on screwing with me daily. He was the most gorgeous bad boy biker in school. His rebel attitude was one that I envied. He was his own man and didn't give a crap what anyone thought about him. Not a day went by that he didn't find a way to piss me off.

Biker was my saving grace. He was the one I was going to be with for the first time. I was counting the days until we could be together. He made everything else more bearable. We were joking around one night when three very important words came out before I could stop them. It was those three words that ruined everything.
