Oft within our little cottage As the shadow gently fall, While the sun's light touches One sweet face nearly the wall - Do we gather close together. And in hushed and tender tone Ask each other for forgiveness For the wrong that each has done. Should you wonder why this custom At the ending of the day. Bye and voice would quickly answer, It was once our mothers way. If our hearts be bright and cheery. If it hold a welcome true, Opening wide its door of greeting To the many not the few; If we share our fathers bounty, With the needy day by day, 'Tis because our hearts remember This was ever mothers way. Sometimes when our hands grow weary, Or our tasks seem very long; When our burdens look too heavy, And we deem the right all wrong Then we gain anew fresh courage, given in the year 1858, by And we rise to proudly say: return to T, N-L et us do our duty bravely; LINCOLN, This was our dear mothers way. - that for the District of Massachusetts. Thus we keep her memory precious. While we never cease to pray That at last, when lengthen the shadows Mark the evening of our day, They may find us waiting calmly To go home our mothers way.
