SS General Ing Hans Kammler was the architect of the Nazi death camps yet nobody has heard of him. He was the third most powerful man in the Third Reich after Hitler and Himmler and was a personal friend of the Fuhrer. By the time Berlin fell he had taken control of all the Nazi black projects including the Haunebu flying disks, type XX1 U-Boats and the massive underground facilities near Prague. At the end of the war he disappeared taking with him the documents, scientists, technicians and technology to continue developing these projects but nobody knows where. Was it to Neuschabenland in Antarctica or did he surrender himself to the Allies? He also took a vast amount of stolen gold to fund the research. The Reich of the Black Sun series chronicles the life and times of Kammler but how close is it to reality? Anybody who can tell is keeping quiet. The few available facts are open to question. There is no doubt that many of the high-ranking SS escaped retribution after the war was over. Perhaps they did go to a refuge in Antarctica from where they spread their influence into the 21st century.
