The crumbling walls of Bergholt sits astride a transshipment point between the far flung realms of the east and west. A backwash, Bergholt is a town of simple folk; folk who consider themselves free of the chaos of the world. This myth rests well for those weary travelers seeking respite from the horrors of the trail and the vile intrigues of the world at large. It is a source book for adventures set in the city of Bergholt and introduces the first part of an intriguing adventure set in the same. With over 50 encounter areas described, new weapons, new skill interpretations, cultural and historical backdrop, this adventure is a must have for any DMs or players fascinated by city adventures. Designed for 4-6 characters of levels 5-7.
