Kayla Barnes finally found true love and complete happiness ... or so she thought. Being married to Mark, the man of her dreams, and having the career she dreamed about as a little girl has finally come true, and Kayla couldn't think of anything more to ask for. That is until the truth about her husband's adulterous ways are revealed. Mark isn't the man that Kayla thought he was, and when his mistress is exposed, her identity will turn Kayla's world upside down.

This tale takes you on the Barnes' marriage ride; where truths are revealed, secrets are exposed, and loyalty is tested. Kayla quickly learns that all vows aren't good vows, and everything that glitters isn't gold. In the end, people aren't who they say they are, family isn't blood, and friendship means nothing.
