Hora de partir (Umbriel narrativa) (Spanish Edition) Jodi Picoult

Alice Metcalf es una científica que ha dedicado parte de su vida a estudiar el duelo de los elefantes, ha realizado increíbles trabajos de investigación sobre los animales que ama. Su pasión por ellos no tiene límites. Un día, sin más, desaparece de forma misteriosa en un trágico accidente. Nadie sabe de ella y ha dejado sola a su hija Jenna. Durante más de una década, Jenna Metcalf no ha dejado de pensar en su madre, se niega a creer que la haya abandonado, la busca sin descanso en diferentes webs y portales de Internet al tiempo que lee detenidamente los viejos diarios de Alice, en los que espera encontrar alguna pista sobre su paradero. Desesperada por averiguar la verdad, Jenna consigue la ayuda de dos extraños aliados en su búsqueda: Serenity Jones, una vidente que alcanzó la fama localizando a personas desaparecidas, pero que ahora ha perdido la fe en sus dones, y Virgil Stanhope, un curtido detective privado que investigó el caso de Alice junto con la extraña muerte de una colega de la científica. Mientras los tres trabajan juntos para descubrir qué le ocurrió a Alice, empiezan a plantearse preguntas difíciles, lo que no imaginan es que las respuestas pueden ser terribles.
