Beyond Belief: 1. The Subdued (Volume 1) Stella Wright

2040. ISIS occupied Europe. The populace is ruled by a totalitarian regime not seen in a hundred years. As a young woman, life promises little for Sara Lewis. Dull, deadening boredom. Terror around every corner. With her own personal secrets - Sara has more to fear from the Islamic State than most. New possibilities awaken when she meets the mysterious individual known only as Null. He offers the hope of transformation and the unheard of - the chance to read... Beyond Belief is a novella published in serial form in 3 bi-monthly parts. EXCERPT: "No one really cares anymore. Not the victors or the vanquished. It seems at times as if everyone is awaiting death. Not as something to be feared or really welcomed, but with the same resignation that animals feel when led to slaughter and first scent blood. Nothing can ever return things to how they were, and there is no path ahead for improvement, just an idle resignation. Children play in the trash of the street. Collectors come sometimes, but there is too much trash to ever really pick all of it up. Everything ends up here. In the streets. Even the bodies. The headless, handless, corpses or the crucified on telegraph poles. Sometimes the bodies sit there with the trash for too long, till it's hard to tell if they were black, white, man or woman, adult or child. Just more trash that no one wants to take away."
