I Think The President Is Dead. David N. Campbell

Rusty is the president's lover not because he is the president but because he is so beautiful. One night in The White House he dies in her arms and she sneaks away and waits for the news. But there is none and he appears as usual. But everyone connected to her is killed and the Secret Service is pursuing her. With her editor's help and a few others they uncover a vast conspiracy they must confront. Rated MA for: sex, violence, intrigue and romance.
