Liah Mathis was a devoted wife, mother of five, and well-respected Psychologist. Unexpectedly, her life was turned upside-down when her husband of 25 years, Brannon Mathis, abandoned her and their children after finding out she was pregnant again— in spite of his vasectomy. Brannon left with the better part of their joint account and none of the responsibility. Despite her hardships, Liah kept her hand in God's and triumphed through her trials. Keeping faith, she changed her career in order to accommodate her new life as a single working mom. Years later on a Saturday evening, the handsome and charming Marcus Michaels, a well-known business tycoon forsaken by his wife, stumbles into her life. Hit by a whirlwind of stirring emotions, Liah and Marcus find themselves in an ambiguous situation. Neither was looking for love. Will Liah trust another man to step in and father her children? Will Marcus be up for the challenge? Will Liah and Marcus both learn the true meaning of an inseparable love?
