Monte Carlo Chase a Tale Told in Words and Pictures Leroy Neiman

This book is a particularly fine example of late Leroy Neiman. As you would expect, there are cars, racing cars, fast colorful cars. However, Neiman is more interested in the event itself, the hoopla and decadence of Monte Carlo, the "glitzkreig."

Released by Alfred Van Der Marck Editions: large format, square hardback with an extra-thick dustcover; cloth over boards with a sewn binding; 123 pp; color illustrations throughout; small mounted plate to front cover. With a profile of the artist, some lovely sketches and roughed-out Neiman pieces, and about 40 pages of evocative, personal, travel writing from the artist.
