Life-Changing Truth for Teens

Why can't I make my own decisions?

What difference does it make how I live my life?

Do "little sins" really matter?

Is it really worth the effort to live the Christian life?

Teens struggle with tough questions like these every day. Society shouts that there are no absolutes to live by, people have a right to do what they want, and feeling good is of utmost importance.

Bestselling author Lorraine Peterson helps young people see through these lies. She shows how God's Word is very clear about a right way to live and that there are tremendous benefits for those who line up with its message. Basing her devotionals on timeless principles from the book of Proverbs, Peterson shows that obeying God is always best; that there are consequences for disobedience; that living it up is really a downer; that right living works.
