What is in a name? Have you ever taken the time to contemplate the meaning behind your name, the experiences that have shaped your life, and the relationships that have defined you? We all have stories to tell about our lives, some sad while others are very joyful. As we reach our later years, only then can we look back at previous events and see how they have shaped or reshaped our lives. While these events may seem small to some, they are important to you. They define you. They cause you to laugh, to cry, to think, to love, and to reminisce. In this book, Dean Scarpa explores the turns and bends along the road in this journey we call life. From an aspiring musician to his career goals, Dean reveals his experiences and revelations. His stories may be of simple events, but the underlying meanings and his revelations are so profound that they will make you pause. You will find yourself taking a deeper look at yourself, your goals, and your relationships - your entire outlook on life. This piece of personal revelation will make you laugh, think, cry, and smile all the way through to the last page.
