He Speaks To Me Everywhere: Meditations On Christianity And Culture Philip Graham Ryken

"We often hear that Christianity relates to all of life. All of life? Would that include e-mail? DNA? T-Ball? April Fool's Day?"—From the foreword by Gene Veith

These topics and more are treated by Philip Ryken, who turns them into meditations on living the Christian life in a culture that has forgotten God, even though he rules just the same. This companion volume to My Father's World explores the areas of politics, marriage, the arts, science, and many others. These fifty short meditations will help readers make sense of our culture and apply a Christian worldview to whatever issues and circumstances they may face.
