Finding Midas: Investing in Entrepreneurial CEOs With the Golden Touch Cleveland, Russell

What makes a company worth investing in? Learning to make the right investments is both complicated and crucial, and author Russell Cleveland has developed a revolutionary and highly effective method for making the best possible picks. His secret: look at the leadership. This unique approach highlights the impact of an individual on a company's success--an excellent leader who believes in his or her organization, has a personal stake in the business, and possesses the abilities and vision the company's market demands--while grounding the strategy with quantifiable, comparable, and easily accessed measures to analyze the CEO and the company. Finding Midas: Investing in Entrepreneurial CEOs with the Golden Touch explains his CEO assessment strategy in a manner that is accessible to beginners while containing insights that can benefit the most experienced investor. Fleshing out his financial analyses with plenty of relevant anecdotes, Cleveland convincingly argues that the companies with the strongest and most involved leaders are the ones that bring in the biggest profits for their investors.
