Girl on the Net: My Not-So-Shameful Sex Secrets Girl On the Net

This is a passionate and deeply erotic memoir that takes us through the life of a sex blogger. There are plenty of filthy chapters, as we follow Girl on the Net through illicit teenage masturbation to fetish clubs, online dating, sex parties and the terrifying horrors of love.

It's a memoir that is unashamed about sex, and keen to sweep away the assumptions we make about it. This book is about desire, love, BDSM, and what people do when the sex stops and you have to fight over the washing up. Above all it's an honest account of the sexual mistakes that make us all human.

"This book is like Twilight, if Twilight was about sex instead of Vampires and didn't hate women." - Martin Robbins, author of 'The Lay Scientist' at the Guardian

"This is the thinking gentleman/woman's filth, and will equally delight and disgust you. It is a frank and honest, which are two of the best qualities for a memoir to be, in my opinion." - BookCunt
