How the Universe Was Created and Other Useless Facts Willow Shipperley

Before there was everything, there was nothing... Or was there? Follow Commotus, god of creation, as he struggles to make sense of the world he created; a universe that, to his surprise, seems to have a life of its own. In this collection of short stories, you'll get answers to the most pressing questions: why do leaves fall off of trees? Why must paperclips exist?
