What Was I Thinking? Mr. Buddy A. Howard

Starting in 1997 I decided that I was going to write and film a TV pilot called Still Working on It. So off I went on an adventure that would cost me friends, money, and time. Looking back on life trying to figure out what it was that started me to become an indie film maker, I don't remember being dropped on my head as a child or eating pain chips. This is a funny look at the does and don'ts of making an independent film that asks the question WHAT WAS I THINKING?
