Left At Her Alter: If He Won't, She Will - A First Time Lesbian Romance Story Veronica Rush

She is Kaya and she's beautiful. She smells like vanilla and lavender, she has blonde hair that's more striking than my black hair, tan skin, curvy... she could basically be a model...

Emily had been preparing for her wedding to James for ages, a marriage that their parents had arranged years ago for the sole purpose of continuing to look good and dominate politics. It wasn't a completely loveless arrangement, though. James and Emily cared deeply for each other, even truly loved each other, but they both knew they weren't actually in love. The morning of the day the wedding was scheduled to take place, Emily wakes to a letter from James calling the whole thing off.

She's not exactly broken up about it.

Her college crush-turned-maid of honor is there and wants nothing more than to continue where they had left off so many years ago and give Emily everything that James never could. Telling your friends and family that the wedding is off might make for a bad time, but Kaya wants nothing more than to take Emily's mind off of it in the dressing room, hot and heavy with no inhibitions.
