The Blue Period Preston M. Smith

Tristan Sullivan is a painter trying to make it in the Los Angeles art scene. He is in his mid-twenties and coming off of a heart-shattering breakup from Nadia, his eccentric ex-girlfriend of five years. The loss of her spirals him out of control and into a world of introspection, debauchery, creativity, strange ailments, and experimentation. Follow Tristan through his bizarre encounters in the city of angels, while he meets a myriad of unusual women, makes new friends, and learns how to hone his craft in the process. It is a bumpy road, filled with angst, humor, and above all, self-discovery.
