Until We Meet Again, Dear John Linda Allen

Have you ever met someone who you swear you met before, perhaps in another life? What if this person was to become one of the most influential romances of your life? What if God sent you this person, but you constantly questioned their presence? Anyone who has ever struggled with the ups and downs of true love will relate to the portrait of heartbreak in Until We Meet Again, Dear John by new author Linda Allen. With the unique ability to speak with and console the souls of the departed, Allen puts all her psychic tarot cards on the table in this journey of self-discovery. She taps into her intuitive abilities with the spiritual world to look for signs from God on a large boulder she comes across that resembles the hand of God, to chance meetings at home and abroad with John, a man who had instantly captured her heart. Readers will laugh, cry, and identify with the chaotic link that leads to marital happiness with another man only God could provide.
