Once There Were No Trees: A Children's Book About Saving The Trees Claudia Johnsen Ph.D.

This delightful romp through the world of trees is a wonderful presentation of how important trees are to us all in our everyday lives. In it, the world of trees is explored and how everyone in the world needs trees, not only for wood and shelter, but also for many tree related business products. This book is itself, totally dependent upon trees for its publication. You will appreciate the care that is taken with the rich, period illustrations, which breathe life into the story told within.
